Right to object – you have the right to object to certain types of processing such as direct marketing.

COOKIES & HOW WE USE THEM..

A cookie is a small file which asks permission to be placed on your computer's hard drive. Once you agree, the file is added and the cookie helps analyse web traffic or lets you know when you visit a particular site. Cookies allow web applications to respond to you as an individual. The web application can tailor its operations to your needs, likes and dislikes by gathering and remembering information about your preferences.

We use traffic log cookies to identify which pages are being used, this helps us analyse data about web page traffic and improve our website in order to tailor it to visitor needs. We only use this information for statistical analysis and identify you merely as a number so we can monitor which pages are found most useful. A cookie in no way gives us access to your computer or any information about you other than the data you choose to share with us.

You can choose to accept or decline cookies. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. This may prevent you taking full advantage and use of our website.

Complaints – In the event you wish to make a complaint about how your personal data is being processed by ISIS, you have the right to complain to the below. If you do not get a response within 30 days you can complain direct to the Data Protection Regulator.
